

Clinic with Leif Aho

Brookfield Farms Equestrian Center is delighted to confirm we are bringing FEI Dressage trainer and USDF Gold, Silver and Bronze medalist Leif Aho to Buffalo for a clinic, July 27-29.

Leif has been rocking Wellington this season with his performances on his self-trained horses. Leif specializes in teaching correct rider biomechanics to create a horse and rider working together, balanced and classically trained.

Private rides are 45 minutes each, and cost $125. If you cannot ride but would like to audit (he will wear a mic), auditing is $40 per day, and includes a boxed lunch.

As always, Brookfield Farms Boarders have priority in a sell-out situation, as long as they make their reservation early. They may also audit free: however, if you wish a boxed lunch any day, the fee is $20. Please designate which days.

If you would like to ride in or audit the clinic please fill out the information below and submit to Marilyn with a check made out to Brookfield Farms for the cost of your rides or auditing fees.
